

EMC Group Limited has been providing professional design and consulting services in engineering, planning, and project management to the private and public sectors since 1981.

We are currently looking to add to our established core of Professional Engineers, Planners and Civil Engineering technicians/technologists.

MUNICIPAL DESIGN ENGINEER

The successful applicant will have a solid background in municipal and urban land development infrastructure systems design.

Qualifications

Qualified Engineers will have a minimum of 5 years experience in design development and detailed design services associated with Urban Land and Municipal Infrastructure including subdivision/highway/road related projects.

- Professional Engineer Licensed to practice in the Province of Ontario
- Experience in roadway design, conflict resolution and ability to prioritize multiple responsibilities.
- Experience in AutoCAD Land Desktop and urban hydrology modeling is an asset.
- Highly effective team player with excellent interpersonal skills with team members and clients.
- Good writing skills in preparation of proposals and various client correspondence

Applications

Qualified candidates are invited to submit their resumes by email to: careers@emcgroup.ca, Please indicate in the subject line: "Application for Employment - Municipal Design Engineer"